Jérémý Tuấn Dũng

I would like to dedicate this site to my family, in particular my grandson Đặng--Trần Tuấn Dũng, my friends and whoever wants to know my native land.

How not to be attached to this Việť-Nam, how not to miss that native country which, however, was not so nice?. It is the land that men have conquered, acre by acre, overcoming a dangerous nature for four thousand years, a land they have never ceased to shape and imbibe with sweat and tears. Therefore getting uprooted is not easy, even for those who have lived abroad for so many years.

I am thankful to some people who allowed me to use their pictures (Hans Kemp , Jean-Michel Gallet , Jean François Cazaux , Như Quỳnh, Sĩ Phú Trần Huỳnh Yên, Dominique Dehez ,Jeremy Jammes, Claire Andreux, Richard Viney) and of course my son Đặng Tuấn Quốc Laurent in the realization of these Web pages.

My portrait described by the prize winner of the Hachette foundation in the "Courier of Vietnam".
